

AMI 3-6 orientation course | Part 1 (online) | course content

The Montessori Orientation Course for Ages 3-6 is a theoretical introduction to the developmental characteristics and needs of children ages 3-6. It supports understanding of this developmental stage for parents, caregivers, school staff, or any individual seeking general knowledge about Montessori developmental theory and education.

Successful participation in all Orientation Course Requirements leads to award of the AMI Orientation Course „Certificate of Completion“ at the 3-6 level.

Course content

- General introduction to Montessori theory and education
- The characteristics and needs of the child ages 3-6
- The role of the adult
- The role of the environment (the home, the institution / school)
- The importance of observation
- Self-construction and cultural adaptation (the absorbent mind, the child as a sensorial learner, the importance of order, movement, language, social development, development of independence, concept of freedom and discipline, the development of the will etc.)